

Frequently Asked Questions

What ID do I use to login to the new website?

Use the same ID you use to get into your Endeavor email account. This is your Endeavor employee ID number that is on your company-issued badge.

Endeavor Air Passwords rules

- Be at least eight characters in length
- Contain both upper and lower case characters.
- Have at least 1 digit (ex. 0-9).
- Are not based on personal information such as nicknames, formal names or those of relatives, pets, or such popularly known names or easily guessed words.

How do I change my password if it has expired or if I have not logged in for over 90 days?

1. Go to the login page for the Employee portal - endeavorairnet.com
2. In the upper right hand corner, click the link for Employee Email
3. Type in your user ID and current password on the email login page
4. You will be prompted to change your password
5. Once you change your password, go back to endeavorairnet.com and login with your user ID and new password.
